Artillery Officers From This State Honored With Commands at Fort Riley.

talion adjutant, Captain J. C. Wise, It may not be generally known that this State has a larger proportion of field artillery, in relation to its entire mil'tia force, than any other State.

The student officers at Port Riley have been formed into battalion units, one of which is commanded by Major Wortham and another by Captain William M. Myers, of the Richmond Howstraers, About 125 artillery officers of the organized militia are present, Virginia furnishing twelve.

officers are actually required to perform field duties and to take charge of appropriate commands. The instructors are selected with a view to their fitness, and, being thoroughly alive to the needs and importance of the militia, are able to assist in the solution of many of the problems affecting the volunteer soldiery.

Major Wortham is pleased with the arrangements made for the instruction and comfort of the officers, and believes this year's course will be even more beneficial than was that of 1910. It is so arranged as to enable the students to handle the guns with efficiency, culminating in three days of fire practive with service ammunition. It is realized that the delivery of an effective fire at the right place and at the right time is, after all, the goal of artillery, and it has always been regarded as unfortunate that the government, so short-handed in this arm of the service, does not provide animals and ranges for militia artillery, with which alone it can become serviceable.

The program at Fort Riley consists of a round of instruction in gunnery and of selection, reconnoisance and occupation of positions. The school will continue until June 15.

Thousands of Weddings Are Declared Illegal

Chicago, June 6 .- Muntelpal Judge

Chiengo, June 6.—Municipal Judge Stewart to-day held that thousands of weddings of the Immediate past were Blegal and vold, because they had been performed by a Justice of the peace from outside the city limits, in an office he occupied in the county huilding in Chiengo. This justice of the peace was recently ousted from the county huilding. The judge volunteered an opinion from the bench that the justice of the peace had no legal right to marry any one in Chiengo, helng a justice from outside of Chiengo, and because justices were abolished in the city in 1005.

At the same time, Philip Fishmin was telling Judge Cooper how he was married without knowing it. He wanted the marriage dissolved. He said he inquired of a clerk in the county clerk's office for a péddier's license. With him was a poung friend. A slip of paper was handed him, he said, and they were taken to Justice Sincey's office. He cold the court he thought he was swearing to something on the permit when he and the girl said the customary "I do." Later he found be had a wife. They tried to make the most of it, he said, but it was not a success.

Mr. Glass was introduced by Norville L. Henry. The candidate's address was along the usual lines of his recent speeches. He made a vigorous attack on the "ring" and "machine" politicians. He was especially bitter in his references to Senator Swanson, who, he alleged, when he was Governor of Virginia, paid a political debt with public funds, when McDonaid Lee, who was chairman of the State Board of Fisheries, became State Fish Commissioner, a new position, at an increase of salary.
